Riomaggiore is the first village of Cinque Terre, a few miles after the wonderful fishermen village of Portovenere. Riomaggiore is perched around the beautiful Church of St. John the Baptist, built in the XIV Century; but the wonder of a Riomaggiore wedding comes from the charm of the village comes mainly from the traditional tall, thin houses painted in a bright pastel color. and it appears especially in the evening when the little boats with bright colors are pulled along the dry inland offering images lost in time.
