Cheap and Chic Advice	A very convenient fee and the nearby Villa D'Este gardens that are wonderful backdrop for your photo shooting make Tivoli ideal for a budget wedding in Rome.

A wonderful opportunity for Budget weddings in Rome. An historical small town in Rome surroundings with a very moderate fee. The Wedding Hall stands in a charming square located. It was built directly on the ancient Roman walls on one side and it leans on a medieval structure at the left of the main facade. It became property of the Comune in 1587. In the building there are valuable paintings and sculptures, first of all the altar piece, made by Sano di Pietro in 15th century representing San Bernardino.

There are two Marriage rooms, the first can accommodate up to 100 persons. The second is the finest, with frescoes and red tapestry and it is ideal for small groups up to 30 persons.
