This palace was built in the late 1200 at the same time when another architectural jewel was built in Florence: Palazzo Vecchio. And it is not by chance that nowadays both this palaces held the wedding halls of these famous Tuscan cities.

In Palazzo Pubblico is kept one of the finest art collection in Tuscany and the wedding hall itself, adorned with frescoes, is one of the most prestigious halls of the palace; to reach it you will walk through a sequence of precious rooms accompanied by the most beautiful frescoes painted by Renaissance Siena artists.
