Cheap and Chic Advice	For lovers of Medieval Tuscany weddings and outdoor settings.

Civil wedding in Certaldo Alto are celebrated in the most renowned palace of this charming historical hamlet: the Palazzo Pretorio. This XV Century palace presents a facade of brick, surmounted by battlements which are result of restoration of the nineteenth century, with a tower on the right with a clock placed here in 1484. A flight of steps and you can glimpse a vision of this "red brick" village before entering the courtyard. The courtyard includes a romantic historical well and a coat of arms. In case of adverse weather conditions, Certaldo weddings are celebrated in the Church of Santi Tommaso and Prospero, the oldest church in Certaldo Alto.
