Cheap and Chic Advice	For an intimate Poppi wedding, the ancient cellars are a picturesque and romantic setting.

Organize your Poppi castle wedding reception at this historical restaurant located in the Medieval old town of the village. With its walls composed of stone-vaulted brick, this restaurant dates back to 1100-1200, and was originally an old wine cellar, where of course the wine was produced. Nowadays the restaurant consists of an entrance hall, a bar and three warm and charming halls. The main hall has been designed after a careful restoration, which maintained the original curved ceiling. In the other two rooms, used as wine cellar, there are hundreds of bottles of the best Italian wines waiting to be opened for celebrating fantastic weddings in Poppi!

The venue offers traditional local dishes based on freshest seasonal products; special attention is given to the presentation of the dishes,
