Tuscany weddings castle in this impressive fortress built on the XI Century on top of a little hill: a perfect vantage point to watch over the entire valley of the Arno river.

The charming tiny village of Lari was built around the castle in Medieval age and the architecture of the Castle has remained almost unchanged since it was set as the seat of government in the XV Century. Civil weddings in this fairy Tuscany castle can be celebrated either indoor or outdoor. You can opt for the Sala del Tribunale, also called Pietro Leopoldo hall that is decorated with 16th century frescoes, the Castle courtyard with more than 90 coats of arms, or the panoramic garden with sweeping views over the charming countryside.
