Cheap and Chic Advice	The charm and spirituality of this ancient church is difficult to imagine. Ideal for small parties.

This is a little jewel in Verona for touching and romantic Verona weddings. Located near the Verona Cathedral, a short stroll from the historical Stone bridge and from Piazza delle Erbe (the delightful Verona main square) this intimate and warm Church was built in the IX Century. The church has a Romanesque appearance, wooden ceiling and a single nave. The wall hangings dating from the Carolingian period, but not the small windows present on the sidewalls, which during the XII Century replaced the large windows.

Can you imagine a more suggestive and spiritual location for Catholic weddings in Verona!?
